

Warm-Up

Name: _____ Period _____ Date _____

You're having a conversation with your family about what to eat for dinner tonight. Everyone has a different opinion. Eventually after lots of discussion, someone says, "Let's vote!" You think this is a great idea. However, you learn that the adults have decided that anyone under the age of 12 is not allowed to vote.

Do you think this rule is fair?

Why might the adults make this rule?

How does this rule affect the voting results?

How might you persuade the adults to allow you to vote? What reasons would you give?