written by Margaret McNamara illustrated by Micah Player

Book Description

Preschool & Elementary picture book

Join the students of Stanton Elementary as they transform their school into a polling place and encourage their families, friends and community to vote on the first Tuesday in November.

Discussion Questions/Activities

- What can children like you do to help their school and community?
- Draw pictures of what your school would look like if it were a polling place like Stanton Elementary
- Interview an adult in your life and ask them about voting. Ask them questions like, "where do you go to vote?" "how old do you have to be to vote?" "tell me about a time that you voted."

Utah Connection

"A Path Forward" Women's History Memorial

In August 2020, a new memorial commemorating the 19th amendment centennial was installed on the grounds of Council Hall in Salt Lake City. Council Hall is the site of the historic first female vote under an equal suffrage law in the United States. "A Path Forward" honors Utah women who worked for voting rights expansion from 1870-the present day.
